Chisholm, MN – St Peter and Paul Greek Catholic Church.

Established on May 28, 1916 as St. Peter-Paul Greek Catholic Church following the Byzantine Rite of Rome. It’s founding members were immigrants from the Sanok and Lesko Districts of Galicia. After 1945 this Byzantine Rite parish attracted immigrants from Ukraine and later became known as Sts. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Catholic Church of the Byzantine Rite. Although closed in 1976 the church building is on the National Historic Register. The building now houses apartments.

Chisholm, MN – St Nicholas Orthodox ~~Greek~~ Catholic Church.

The church was founded by immigrants from the Sanok and Lesko Districts of Galicia, as well as immigrants from the area around Kiev and Grodno in White Russia. These immigrants looked to the orthodox church in Moscow for spiritual direction. The church is currently closed but is being cared for by the St. Nicholas Preservation Society. Liturgies and special events are held at various times during the year.

Bramble, MN – St Peter and Paul Russian Orthodox Church.

St. Peter and Paul Russian Orthodox Church was established in 1918 by members of St. Nicholas who had moved to the area. The church is located forty miles northwest of Chisholm in the southernmost section of Koochiching County. Closed in 1932, St. Peter and Paul was restored and rededicated in 1968. The church belongs to the Lukachik family and services are held periodically throughout the year. There is a Facebook page: St. Peter & St. Paul Russian Orthodox Church, Orr MN

Colombia Heights, MN - St Peter and Paul Russian Orthodox Church. Established in 1926 and closed in 1959. The Rusyn families living in this part of the metro area wanted to form a neighborhood church rather than attend St. Mary's Russian Orthodox church located in NE Minneapolis. The church, located near the intersection of Old Central and Osborne in Columbia Heights, has been torn down and graves moved to St Mary's Russian Orthodox Church cemetery.
